24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Even with his newfound wealth, the forgiven servant says to his fellow servant, "Pay back what you owe." In doing so he refuses "mercy to another like himself." However, "the vengeful will suffer the Lord's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail." The "logic" of mercy is very simple: "Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then your own sins will be forgiven. "Thus, "none of us lives for oneself"; rather, "we live for the Lord" and by the Lord. The "Lord of both the dead and the living" will endow us with the power to forgive others as he himself does. The desire to forgive others-even when painful wounds remain-is already the indication that God's mercy is present in our hearts. United to Jesus, we dare to "expect healing from the Lord."

Millions of Monicas is a prayer ministry that brings together mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, aunts and any women who "mother" to pray for the return of their children to the practice of their Catholic faith through the powerful intercession of St. Monica. We are seeking donations of handheld sized crucifixes, (new or gently used). These crucifixes are used during our prayer gatherings as a focal point for prayer as we ask Christ to draw our loved ones ever closer to His Sacred Heart. If you have a crucifix you would like to donate, please contact: oakdalemillionsofmonicas@gmail.com

Journey in Christianity

A Roman Catholic Weekend Retreat

Supported by the Stockton Diocese

RECHARGE YOUR FAITH.
ENCOUNTER CHRIST.

Journey in Christianity is hosting a weekend retreat to explore Christianity and reflect on our faith and the mission of Christianity. The Journey experience is for adults and provides an opportunity to share with one another, learn about community and encounter Christ in each other. It is a great way to recharge your Catholic faith and learn more about what Jesus and the Catholic Church teach.

24.º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

A pesar de su recién adquirida riqueza, el siervo perdonado dice a su compañero: “Págame lo que me debes”. Al hacerlo, niega “la misericordia a otro igual a él”. Sin embargo, “los vengativos sufrirán la venganza del Señor, pues Él recuerda sus pecados con detalle”. La “lógica” de la misericordia es muy sencilla: “Perdona la injusticia de tu prójimo; entonces tus propios pecados serán perdonados”. Así, “nadie vive para sí mismo”; más bien, “vivimos para el Señor” y por el Señor. El “Señor de vivos y muertos” nos otorgará el poder de perdonar a los demás tal como Él mismo lo hace. El deseo de perdonar a los demás —incluso cuando persisten heridas dolorosas— es ya señal de que la misericordia de Dios está presente en nuestros corazones. Unidos a Jesús, nos atrevemos a “esperar la sanación del Señor”.
